DAN SMOKE: Aanii! Boozhoo! Sge:no! Shekoli! And nya:weh to Paul Dockstader for coming in today and being our guest. And we will certainly do everything we can to help him, help our brother. There's a remembrance ceremony that's going to be taking place on Sunday, November the 7th and right now, this is going to be taking place in Ottawa, and we'd like to gauge how many people are interested in attending this ceremony? It's going to be up on Parliament Hill, in front of the Parliament buildings at 2:00 PM, Sunday November the 7th. There's a sign-up sheet that will be in the First Nations Resource Centre, so sign up if you're interested. And Mary Lou, you have an announcement about the Fall Feast?

MARY LOU SMOKE: Yeah, there's going to be a Fall Feast happening at N'Amerind on October 20th, that's this Wednesday, at 5:00. Also at that time, there will be some students being awarded for their achievements. So, if you can get there, call Karen at [redacted]. I believe you have to bring something for the feast, but you'd better find out for sure.

DS: And we'd like to close for this week saying nya:weh, onen ki' wahi, gawaabamin. And we're going to close with Bill Miller, "Raven in the Snow," here on Smoke Signals.
