Segment 7
Episode Air Date: 1997-02-07

Host(s): Dan Smoke, Mary Lou Smoke

DAN SMOKE: Okay, we're going to close this week with the featured entertainer of the Aboriginal Music Week events taking place that are coordinated by the Aboriginal Music Project in Toronto. Most of the events will be featured at the Native Canadian Friendship Centre of Toronto located at Bloor and Spadina. Some of the venues that will be taking place are...where Mary Lou?

MARY LOU SMOKE: Oh, at the Coloured Stone?

DS: At the Coloured Stone on Richmond Street, which is down by King Street near Young Street. And Jenny Lozan is the featured entertainer. This is from her first CD Blue Voice, New Voice, recently nominated for a Juno Award in the Best Music of Aboriginal Canada category. This is "99 Pounds," here on Smoke Signals. Onen ki' wahi, gawaabamin.
