

Smoke Signals Radio Archive Episode 1992-05-09

Segment 3

Episode air date: 1992-05-09

Dan Smoke says nya:weh (thank you) to Howard Elijah for sharing healing, nurturing words and introduces Chief AI Day for next week.

Host(s): Dan Smoke, Mary Lou Smoke

DAN SMOKE: Shekóli, boozhoo! You just heard Mitch Walking Elk. The song was entitled “What U Doing 2-Nite” from his album Indians. And now we are going to listen to some community announcements with Mary Lou.

MARY LOU SMOKE: Thanks Dan. [Mary Lou continues with community announcements]

DS: Okay, nya:weh Mary Lou. I'd just like to say nya:weh to Howard Elijah too for sharing those wise words with us because, you know, words like that in the spirit of cooperation are what we need to hear today because as we're all healing, those are very healing, nurturing words to be shared. I'd just like to say that [Dan continues with community announcements].

And we will have Chief AI Day next week featured on Smoke Signals. So until next week, we're going to say goodbye with the song from Joanne Shenandoah and Paul Ortega, the song is entitled “A Prayer for Sun Dancer” from the album Loving Ways. Onen ki' wahi, see you next week.