Segment 2
Episode Air Date: 2002-09-15

Dan Smoke invites listeners to attend the next Real Rez Bluez show in Toronto, hosted by Elaine Bomberry. The event will feature performances by First Nations blues artists.

Host(s): Dan Smoke

DAN SMOKE: Aanii! Boozhoo! Sge:no! Shekoli! Yes, that was our brother Jimmy Wolf, from his Raw Blues CD. Jimmy Wolf is going to be probably making his entry into the Native blues scene up here in Canada, one of the Real Rez Bluez shows that are taking place in Toronto. Speaking of Real Rez Bluez shows, later on this month, Elaine Bomberry will be hosting a grand program of First Nations blues artists at the Silver Dollar [inaudible]. There will be a CD release. The CD is entitled Skin Tight Blues. Skin Tight Blues is a compilation CD of many First Nations blues artists, including Murray Porter, Josh Miller with the Soul Kings, Derek Miller, the Pappy Johns band, who are the house band for the Aboriginal Peoples Television Network's number one rated show Buffalo Tracks. You can see them on Buffalo Tracks. I believe Keith Secola is going to be there at this, on September the 26th, this time around. I think he's at Elaine's next Real Rez Bluez show. But you can catch Pappy Johns, Murray Porter, Josh Miller on September 26th, beginning at 8:00 PM at the Silver Dollar Tavern at College and Spadina Avenue in Toronto. So, that's on September 26th. We will give you more information on this concert event venue a little bit later on as we get closer to the time for this Real Rez Bluez show. But you're always guaranteed to have a great time because Elaine puts on a good program with good artists.
