

Smoke Signals Radio Archive Episode 2000-05-06
Segment 4
Episode Air Date: 2000-05-06

Mary Lou Smoke and Jessica Smith share events taking place in the London, Ontario community with listeners.

Host(s): Dan Smoke, Mary Lou Smoke
Guest(s): Jessica Smith

DAN SMOKE: Aanii! Boozhoo! Koolamalsi. Waciyeh! And we're now going to share with you some of the events taking place in and around the London area community. That was Keith Secola & the Wild Band Of Indians on his newest CD, Fingermonkey. The number one CD in Indian country, according to Smoke Signals First Nations Radio. And that song was "Innocent Man," dedicated to Leonard Peltier. Okay, Jessica and Mary Lou?

[MARY LOU SMOKE and JESSICA SMITH continue with community announcements.]

DS: Nya:weh, miigwetch, Mary Lou and Jessica for those announcements taking place. Hope to see you at some of these events. I know that N'Amerind is going to be having their powwow on June the 8th at the Lester Pearson Public School, that's announced. Okay. Well, we want to share with some music again. We're going to play Jimmy Wolf from the Mohawk nation. This comes from his Raw Blues CD, and this is "She Likes It Funky," here on Smoke Signals.