from Oct 10-23/12
 a survey is being taken to determine how many bodies are
 when in the library.
 Had counts will be taken hourly throughout the day. The Curriculum Committee is conducting the survey, but the results will be of use to the library.

The University of Western Ontario

STUDENT TRAVEL FUNDS

A small sum of money has been made available for student field trips.

FIELD TRIP

A visit has been arranged to a lamasery library in Tibet, by canoe. The trip will last 14 weeks and students will be excused classes during that period, but all assignments must be made up. Details from Al.

PIGEONHOLES

Will students please clear all pigeons from their pigeonholes.

H.P.B. RETRIEVAL

The new revised updated improved HPB file is on line again. Will someone please take it in if it starts raining.

SLIS CATALOGUE

Need we say more?

LIBRARY TRAFFIC SURVEY

Students bringing cars into the library are asked to leave them at the desk. The riding of bicycles between the stacks is prohibited (except for Holly Glendenning).

ACCOMODATION

Girl wanted to share house with 12 male students. Accomodation free in return for light housekeeping and other duties.

POSITION OPEN

A vacancy is available at the University of Outer Mongolia for a cataloguer to index variant editions of the "Thoughts of Chairman Mao". Hours: 3 a.m. to 11 p.m. Salary, 10,000 roubles and all the wolves you can shoot. (Members of the N.D.P. need not apply).

COURSE RE-NUMBERING

Professor Rogers has kindly supplied the following algorithm for converting present SLIS course numbers to the new SLIS course numbers.

1. Think of a course number.
2. double it.
3. square the result.
4. add your girl friend's age (if she'll tell you).
5. divide by three.
6. multiply by the number of books in SLIS library.
7. take away most of the students in your class.
8. cut up the log of  $\sqrt{-1}$ .
9. go and ask Carmen Sprovieri what the new course number is.
